Positive Behavior Program

Behavior Trait of January

SPORTSMANSHIP

A commitment to fair play and a willingness to treat our opponents with kindness and respect.

Happy New Year from the Positive Behavior Program (PBP) at WUES! We hope everyone had a wonderful holiday and that 2024 brings health, happiness and all the good things your way. Sharing our NEW Positive Behavior Trait, "Sportsmanship", for January as well as some resources to use to begin a discussion with your children.

CBS Morning – Kindness 101: Sometimes people get in a game and think "all I have to do is win", while not considering the need to be kind and empathetic toward others around them. Remember that you should be the same person in a game as you are in real life. Treat others like you want to be treated – even in competition!

With baseball/softball season starting soon and field day right around the corner, please take a moment to model and discuss what sportsmanship is with your kids.

PBP's recommended books for January!

Here are the Positive Behavior Committee's recommended books for Sportsmanship.

- I Promise – LeBron James
- Evie's Field Day – Claire Noland
- Legend of Rock Paper Scissors – Drew Dewart
- Pig the Winner – Aaron Blabey
- Do Unto Otters – Laurie Keller
